ParentingNI

Good parenting is the cornerstone of strong families. Parents should be supported to provide their children with a positive upbringing. That support should be delivered in a way that promotes respectful and empowering attitudes and which values parents' unique knowledge of their own children.

Parenting NI would advocate that early intervention and prevention services are the most effective in securing long term change for children and young people. Children and young people of all ages can benefit from services that intervene as soon as possible to tackle problems that have already emerged or work towards preventing potential poor outcomes for children and young people.
